Reid reported that the committee discussed the idea of moving the location and the group voted to have the Reunion again next year at Micksburg. Ethel Keuhl read: "Did you know?" news bulletin concerning some of the Micks. Collin Mick read Jacob's Courtship. Heather Bradley and Ethel Keuhl led a sing song of Irish songs.

There were people present from New Liskeard, Moorefield, Haley Station, Port Dover, Pembroke, Ottawa, Toledo, Ohio, U.S.A., Nework, Ohio, U.S. A., Northville, M.I., U.S.A., Rankin, Gloucester, Eganville, Cobden, Micksburg, Brantford and Carleton Place. The Micks from Ohio came in green T-shirts with Mick Reunion, Micksburg, Ontario printed on them; also their name and what relation they were to the clan.

Shawna and Jennie registered the guests. Eileen Burgess pronounced the Blessing before we had our dinner. Reunion pins were sold at the gathering.

The committee for 1991 are Mr. and Mrs. Reid Mick, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Steege, and Mr. and Mrs. Winston Mick.
